

Fondation Bordeaux Université, France

Fondation Bordeaux Université is a nonprofit organization raising funds to support the development of the whole campus in Bordeaux such as the University of Bordeaux. It is an original interface between academic and economic actors of all sizes (Large Groups, ETIs, SMEs, start-ups, associations, etc.).

Thanks to patronage it aims at supporting & promote academic excellence and innovation, enhancing student employability and improve learning experience to the benefit of the regions' development and international attractiveness. Due to the importance of wine production in Bordeaux it is a key business areas of the Foundation.

In the framework of Oenoviti International, the Foundation is in charge of collecting membership fees, developing patronage and managing the network finances in close collaboration with ISVV and the Oenoviti executive committee.

Adrien Le Leon,
Fondation Bordeaux Université

OENOVITI International brings an international dimension to our institution which is used to collaborate with the local academic partners